

Raymond Beall, Jr.

Raymond Beall Jr participated in the Officer Candidate School in the United States Marine Corp. He married Glenda Beall in San Marcos. Beall taught Biology, coached, was assistant principal and became a principal of Boling High School and Eagle Lake Middle School. He was named Teacher of the Year four times, Coach of the Year twice, Bay City Tribune Coach of the year, and All Wharton County Coach of the year. In 1998, he was elected Outstanding Assistant Principal of the Year and Outstanding Middle School Principal for Region III in 2003.

Ray is a member of the Sons of the American Revolution chapter 33, Sons of the Republic of Texas-Stephen F. Austin chapter number 6, a member of St. John's Masonic Lodge number 5, American Clan Gregor Society and the Peyton Society of Virginia.

His two daughters, Jamie and Jodie served in the US Navy and both are members of the Daughters of the American Revolution. His wife Glenda is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. She is currently one of the English teachers at Bay City High School and has been an educator for 35 plus years.

Beall looks forward to witnessing how his grandsons Cody Beall Wright (Jr. SAR), Caleb Michael Smith (Jr. SAR), Jacob Anthony Gerhardt, and Eli Ryan Gerhardt carry on the Beall's tradition and lineage.
